Lone Star President

Reorganization of the Lone Star Gas System has been announced by D. A. Huley, president. The five operating companies and the holding company which formerly composed the system have been reorganized into two companies, and the holding corporation is to be discontinued.

Since 1940 Mr. Huley has been president of the Lone Star Company which, until the reorganization, operated as the pipe line or wholesale division of the business. With the reorganization he became president of the entire system. He is a native Texan and has been with the company for 23 years.

The names of The Dallas Gas Company, Community Natural Gas Company, Texas Cities Gas Company and the Lone Star Gasoline Company have been dropped and all the transportation and distribution operations of these companies have been taken over by the Lone Star Gas Company.

The gas field producing operations have been placed in the Lone Star Producing Company. Both of these companies are Texas corporations.

Mr. Huley explained that the reorganization does not change the basic policies or the personnel but does simplify operations and creates a tightly knit organization which is even more sensitive and responsive to the customer's fuel service needs and to war-time demands.

The Lone Star built the first long-distance gas pipe line in Texas, the pioneer line running from Petrolia to Fort Worth and Dallas. Since the time that it began operations in 1909, it has grown into a system with 4,850 miles of inter-connected pipe line transporting natural gas from 75 fields and serving almost 300 towns and cities in north-central Texas and southern Oklahoma.

Mr. Huley pointed out that with a general rate reduction last May and the simplification of the system now completed, the year 1942 had been a notable one in the development of the Lone Star for the benefit of the Southwest.

BUSINESS STATEMENT

Due to business conditions over which we had no control, we decided it probably was best to dispose of our business in Hamlin, so we have sold to Mr. W. A. Albritton and we ask that those who are indebted to us, see Mrs. Newberry, Buddy Newberry, or myself at once and make settlement of your account, if you have not already done so, as I would like to get off to the hospital for medical treatment at the earliest possible date.

We wish to thank our customers and friends who have given us their business during our stay in Hamlin and assure you that we shall always remember you. Mr. Albritton asks that you give him consideration in selection of your new trading place.

Miss Lois Stell completed her courses in the Denton State Teachers College last week, and received her Bachelor of Science Degree. She majored in Home Economics and is taking a teaching position in the Allison school in Wheeler county. Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stell took her to that place by auto Sunday.

W. R. Wilkerson was taken to the Stamford hospital last Saturday and was operated upon for appendicitis. He was in a very serious condition for a while, but the latest information Thursday is that he is doing fine and should soon be at home.

805 Dimes Gathered In March of Dimes

The way to get money for anything is just to go after the dimes. That's what Mrs. V. R. Bond did, as local chairman for the President's Ball, Infantile Paralysis Fund Drive, in Hamlin last Saturday. She and our extra lively Girl Scouts did the trick to the tune of 805 dimes. That's not so bad. Congratulations to Mrs. Bond and all her helpers.

WHEN I WAS A BOY

By Boyce House

WHEN I WAS A BOY—

I lived for a few months in Taylor. Of these long-ago days, I can recall only a few things.

One of the pastimes at school during recess was matching pecans. If you came into possession of a tough-shelled pecan and another boy had a similar one, he (or you) would take the two in the palm of one hand, clench the hand, wrap the other hand around that one, and squeeze. One of the pecans would crack. If it was yours, the other boy ate it; if his was crushed, you ate it.

There was one fellow who munched on pecans all through recess for two days. He would not let any other boy do the crushing. At last, a dissatisfied loser, who was bigger, took the pecan away from him — and the secret of his success was found. The pecan weighed about half a pound. He had cut a tip off, used a hairpin to remove the contents and had refilled it with molten lead. Naturally, the pecan would not break unless hit with a sledge hammer or something of the sort!

WHEN I WAS A BOY—

Another little thing— though it wasn't little at the time—was the circus season. Not one but two circuses were coming to town in the space of 10 days. I could afford a general admission ticket to only one of the shows. Which should it be: Sells-Floto or Adam Forepaugh? I obtained every piece of highly-colored literature that the rival attractions issued and studied the pictures and pondered on the long words, such as "breath-taking, death-defying spectacle", "mighty, man-eating kings of the jungle," and after weighing all the evidence, decided in favor of Adam Forepaugh. I have never regretted the decision. It was the greatest circus I ever saw. Of course, the fact that I was only 11 years old might have had something to do with this judgment.

WHEN I WAS A BOY—

Another Taylor occurrence was my achievement in probably setting a world's record for eating sweet potatoes. One Sunday afternoon, I visited a neighbor family and the big oven of the kitchen was filled to the brim with baked yams. The skins had split and juices had oozed out. When the sun sank that afternoon, there were no potatoes left. The ships of Xerxes at rocky Salamis or the host of Sennacherib had not been destroyed more utterly. Of course, I did receive some assistance from my younger sister and two small boys of the neighbor family. I am sorry that the exact statistics on this feat of mine were not preserved for the envy and admiration of all future ages.

WHEN I WAS A BOY—

It was at Taylor that a school-mate covertly indicated a man who was passing and whispered, "He's been in the pen." I turned and looked at him. He was the first convict (or, rather, ex-convict) I had ever seen and his appearance is vivid even now: he was a little stooped, with hard features, hair still stubby on his head and there was a furtiveness to his look.

That day, he seemed to me something fearsome, half animal-like. Now that I understand the disgrace and shame he felt, the necessity of associating with his fellow men yet wishing to shun them, he seems to have been something pitiful.

And that will be about enough of the recollections of a small boy in a small city 35 years ago.

Mrs. Bill Adams of Richmond, Va. is here to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carlton and other relatives.

Editor Will Gay of Moody was here the past week end to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gay and other relatives.

McBETH COMING FOR BIBLE CONFERENCE

Rev. J. P. McBeth, pastor of the First Baptist church in Anson, will teach the book of Malachi at the local Baptist church, beginning Sunday night and closing Wednesday night. Bro. McBeth is one of the outstanding Bible teachers in Texas. He is the author of a most valuable commentary on the book of Romans and has been for several years in demand as a Bible teacher at various associational and state meetings. We count it a privilege to have him with us these days.

On Sunday night, Bro. McBeth will speak at the regular worship hour which begins at 8:00 P. M. Beginning Monday night, the conference will start at 7:45. This is a real opportunity for those who thirst for more knowledge of God's work. Our Sunday School Board will give credit for this work, and our workers are urged to attend.

LAYMEN MEET

Lewis Ackers, Bob McFall, and Mr. Ross of Abilene came over from the First Christian church and rendered a program in the Methodist church basement last Monday night. Mr. Ackers gave a marvelous story of Moses in his own impressive and dramatic way. Hot coffee and doughnuts were served to those present.

Mrs. Russell Directs Music Club Program

Wednesday afternoon the Schubert Club met in their club room in the Methodist church for a program on Russian music and selections by Russian composers.

Mrs. W. C. Russell directed the program and discussed Russia prior to the Revolution.

Mrs. Henry Albritton played a piano solo, and a piano duet, "Piano Concerto B Minor" by Tchaikowsky was played by Misses Joan Culbertson and La Nelle Carlton, guest artists from the Junior Music Club.

Mrs. Ira Clements concluded the program with a talk, Music A Life Ideal to War Torn Russia.

Choral practice followed the program.

Newberry & Sons Sell Their Grocery Stock

O. C. Newberry, who with his sons for a number of years has been operating the Cloverfarm Grocery, this week sold his stock to the Albritton Food Store. Mr. Newberry says that with his sons in the armed services, and the many hindrances brought about by the rationing, and still more to follow, he did not see how he could hold up under the strain, especially with his health far from up to par.

Mr. Newberry has his building rent paid in advance, and does not know exactly what they will do, except that he is to take some special treatment in a hospital. The grocery stock is being taken to the Albritton store as they find room for it and need it.

The Newberry family ranks high in everybody's estimation and it is with a feeling of regret to see them close down their store.

Chamber of Commerce Has 4 New Directors

Mrs. E. M. Wilson, secretary of the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce reports a meeting of the directors, Tuesday, and that the results of the recent ballot, shows that A. Spencer, G. R. Bennett, L. H. McBride and J. E. Moody are the four new directors.

The hold-over directors are: Mac Brundage, R. H. Campbell, Roy Gilbreath, Henry Albritton, J. B. Terrell, Harold Bonner, W. C. Russell and Eddie Jay.

At the meeting, Gordon R. Bennett was elected president, and Mac Brundage, vice-president.

There's your "Host Committee" for Hamlin. Twelve men into whose hands the community of Hamlin will rest for the following twelve months. These men cannot make a city out of Hamlin in that time but it is possible for them to lay a pretty good foundation.

Wonder what YOU would suggest for the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce to do to help on some line, and what line? Be careful and whatever you suggest be ready to get behind it and push a lot. Look back over the past 30 years and imagine what might have been done if it had been attempted. Remember that many men, good and strong, have stuck their necks on a lot of "impossibles" which at the time seemed plausible.

There's work to be done. There's a future to be looked into. Action, based on sound judgment, quick and fast is what counts.

Let's remember, years ago when every community was wide awake, and seeking highways, Hamlin was asleep, and to this day highways into and out of Hamlin are not built.

Let's assume that some day the wars will be over and the skies will be full of freight, passenger travel. To this day no tangible arrangements have been taken to lay out and control close up lands for a municipal air port, or even a safe landing field. Something should be done about it NOW.

Thanks, Fire Boys

Please let us take this way to express our thanks to the fire department which reached our store Thursday night, Jan. 23, before the alarm clock ringing. We know had you not responded so quickly our store and possibly our home and other homes would have caught from the car. Thanks to the doctor and his sons for turning in the alarm and for the telephone operator who awakened the fire boys. And thanks to all the friends.

THIS WEEK

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

AND A LITTLE BIT OF

THAT

This week starts off with good omens...Edward J. Flynn, recent Democratic National Chairman, and the man the Republicans raised so much hell about being appointed as our representative to Australia, got out of the way by requesting Mr. Roosevelt to withdraw his name from the Senate...everybody admires this man for his willingness to keep unity...now unity is obtainable as long as a lot of Republicans and some Democrats can do something to down Mr. Roosevelt...in fact, sometimes it appears that some Americans had rather see Roosevelt defeated than Hitler...The next thing to catch an eye, is the picture of Speaker Rayburn and Vice-President Wallace trying to eat Muskrat...look at that picture...old Rayburn is in the very "act"; how his jaws swell out, he's a little ahead of Wallace, who hesitates with his fork full, gosh, O Rats!...it is all politics and maybe the Republicans will not like THAT...in the rat case, we bet there's a tail to the story...somebody had better investigate...We think there's entirely too much fuss being made over the income tax report...it seems by now that subject is pretty well grounded...the only things to remember...keep an accurate account of all gross income...also an account of out go that is deductible...then deduct and see if you have anything to pay the tax on...if so pay it and so there!...it's so easy? ? ? Everybody, even the haters of Mr. Roosevelt breathed a breath of relief Saturday night when they learned he had reached Washington safely...after all, Mr. Roosevelt is a very important man in the world these days...O yes, there are plenty of men in these United States who could be president, but it would take a long time to measure as high as F. D. R...he should not be allowed to take any more such risks...but who has the power to say, no Frank you can't go...yes, his doctor...Somebody else can do some traveling and a bit of negotiating as well as Mr. Roosevelt...there's unconquerable Mister Minister Churchill, who, like his side-kick, Franklin D., kept the good work up and took an extended trip to talk Turkey...Up to this time the only thing that has kept Turkey from getting its head under the Hitler block, was that she kept gobbling to suit Goebels...both England and America are slow but sure, in the long run...Not so long ago it looked like the Hitler machine was going to grind down the Mediterranean on all sides and not only take Turkey and all the Near East but Africa, as well...but few who knew the English and American spirit could believe it would ever happen...and the only thing that kept it from happening was that Hitler spent too much of his energy on Russia...had he started south instead of east he would have put the United States and all our Nations in a ten year war, maybe longer...now Africa is safe, and so is Turkey and the Near East, that's what WE THINK...Now some more about that Income Tax question...you'd better play safe...make out your report before March 15th...If you owe it and pay it, the sooner the better...And can you imagine the Germans mourning for their dead army that fell before the Russians at Stalingrad? Their day of mourning has arrived...the Poles and the Czechs, and the Greeks, and millions of Russians have mourned and mourned, and now it is time for the murderers to cry awhile...and let's look out for the Finns, the Roumanians, and the Bulgars...they are to tumble next, and it will not be long...It would not be surprising to hear Germany crying for England to save her from Russia yet...the Rusty Russians are due to pass through Berlin, in the year 1943, as they did in 1863.

Dunkerque Avenged

The whole English speaking world was humiliated when the Germans surrounded and kicked the English army out of France at Dunkerque, in 1940 and then proceeded to overrun the unconquerable French army and all Europe. Yes, it was a defeat of men and the capturing of war material almost beyond comprehension. It was almost a fatal blow to the Allied nations...now the picture is reversed...the frame carries the background of the Volga River, with the blackened ruins of Stalingrad showing that Hitler's steel machine can be stopped. There were no boats to carry out the German soldiers like the English had at Dunkerque. Unknown thousands of German soldiers have died of shot and shell plus starvation while uncountable war booty has been left over a wide scope of earth...It was the privilege of the Russians to revenge Dunkerque and it will be a blow that can never be overcome by Germany. Americans can never understand the terrible things the Russians have borne in the defense of their homelands. It is terrible to lose life but still more unbearable to become the slave of a hated enemy.

Not only has Dunkerque been avenged at Stalingrad but all along on the north shores of Africa the Germans and Italians are getting kicked in the pants out into the Mediterranean, where again without doubt they are losing almost uncountable numbers of men and mountains of war stuff. And still the worst is yet to follow. Right will prevail, and just vengeance is sure to come.

Unconditional—

The Unconditional Surrender Conference recently held at Casablanca, with the United States and England backing the idea, has a far greater meaning than most of US realize. It plugs up the gap for the Germans, Italians and Japs to creep through on an "armistice". This time there will be no armistice, as far as Our Nations are concerned. We learned that lesson in 1918.

Now let's see. "Unconditional Surrender" means to throw up your hands and yell out "I'm whipped, you frame the terms, I'll take what you are willing to give, all we want is life." That is a term that would make Americans and English tighten up and buckle down to the last breath of man, and make us fight on and on a hundred years and more. So we have now asked our enemies to yell out when they get all they can stand, and let others figure the consequences. This time it is a struggle to the death. How long will it take? It could be stopped in twenty-four hours if the Americans could get the mass of people in Germany and Italy to understand our effort in war is not to hurt the individual people but to stop a carnage of warfare and murder that their leaders have piled upon innocent nations... if they could but know, all would be well... it is a matter of trust. Surrender for the Germans and Italians would be their greatest blessing, for America and England would not mistreat them, unless taking from them their means of fighting is called mistreatment. They must have their rights to their own way of life within their own boundaries, free and unhampered, to come and go, to buy and sell, to trade and build, to be happy and unafraid of any neighbor nation.

But Americans and Englishmen can not have that much confidence in the nations we are now fighting. We can not believe they would ever let us have rights we love. So if Germany, Italy and Japan should lay down a challenge "unconditional surrender" it would mean for them a fight to the very end of our resources and endurance. So our conclusion is that the war is going to be longer than most of us think. We believe still, that starvation will be the foundation of an "unconditional surrender". Then chaos will follow unless the resources of the Americas and the rest of the world come to the helpless doors of the conquered.

The Blue and Orange Stamp Racket Stopped

A communication has been sent out from Austin, stating that after March 1, the Public Welfare Department will have no further use for 255 Junior Field workers, 12 field supervisors, 10 clerical workers, and in the counties 110 clerical workers. The WPA is being liquidated and the CCC has been discontinued, the food stamp program is being abandoned.

The present school lunch program still exists. Now the question is, what schools can prove they are eligible for this kind of "hand-out". Families will no longer be certified as eligible for foods, as in the past.

Let us quote J. S. Murchison. Executive Director: "The number of needy families being aided through the distribution of food received from the Federal Government has dropped from month to month and most of the needy families now being aided are unemployed, sick, or disabled and cannot be properly cared for by the present food program."

"The burden of care for needy individuals and families who cannot qualify under one of the social security programs will have to fall upon local agencies," he said.

Detailed instructions on the closing of the program are being sent to the welfare field staff today and all County Boards will receive official notice of the closing action within a few days, the department's announcement stated.

One of the hardest problems in all forms of so called "relief" is where to stop. Often help seems the human thing to start, but it is like feeding a poor cat, soon there'll be another and then another wanting a hand-out. So they all eat while the mice play all around. Some day, perhaps Americans will figure out a better way.

Common Sense Leads To Happiness—

Last week appeared in some of the county papers a "hard-boiled" report, of the annual meeting of The Tenant Purchase Families in Jones County. This paper did not carry that very important article, principally because it was one that should be emphasized by special editorial comment. This is what we propose to do instead of making the restricted, mere report of a meeting. It was not a "mere meeting". It was one where each and everyone had a personal, a vital interest in every word expressed.

Yes, it took place in Anson's Methodist church, January 22, and it should have been considered the biggest event of the whole year, not only for Anson but for the entire county. All right, let's analyze what the report carried:

Up to this time 19 Tenant Families have had a chance to buy or to have purchased for them, nice, well chosen dependable farms. This means that the government has advanced the purchase price of the lands for these families, who otherwise would have been renting still or maybe rooted from the farms into some silly city fickle job of starvation. Now they feel like they have a part in the affairs of this nation because they have been given a chance, and have proved worthy of it.

Now let's see. According to the report these 19 families were to have paid Uncle Sam $6,551.27, the amount due for 1942. LOOK what they did, instead. They paid $20,931.33. These families averaged paying 23 per cent of their gross incomes, or about the same amount their landlords would have gotten if they were still renters.

The average farm is 162 acres. These farms are "managed" and there's nothing "shacky" about them. Jam-up residences, good barns out-houses, fences, civic attractiveness, flowers and lawns, mostly. Now after living requirements, these farms sold an average of $3,613 worth of products, or $68,667 grand total.

Money is not all in a life on the farm. Eating and comforts have a place. So these 19 farms averaged 307 quarts of canned fruits and vegetables, besides no telling how much potatoes, onions, beans, etc., stored. Then there was their own meat, lard, milk, cream, poultry and eggs.

Where did all that money come from to pay so much on their lands?

Sale of cotton 57%
Sale of Eggs 14 "
Sale of Hogs 6 "
Sale of Cattle 3 "
Sale of Dairy Products 10 "

Since these families were land-owners, they had a chance to diversify their efforts. Renters can't do that. The new style of farm owners acquired their places because of their businesslike habits, and proved before they got their farms that they would make good. But that's not the end of it. They meet once each year and talk about how they are getting along. Not a bit of jealousy in the whole bunch. If one does better than another, they all want to know why and how. So they talk their business over. They realize everything is not perfect, and never will be, but they are proving they enjoy their opportunities and are making the best of it.

These families look ahead with capable advisors to head off failures. These annual meetings help them figure ahead on many lines. Their chief ambition is to keep all payments as far ahead as possible so that none will get caught in a forfeiture of his farm. This year, 1943, presents a greater opportunity for them to sell at good prices all surpluses of foods, as well as cotton.

Now let's look still farther ahead. There are millions of acres of lands in this state that are doing hardly any good for anybody. Some of it is being used to make richer and richer the present owners, in some cases. The lands make up the nation, and some day some plan must be found to give more and more families life and security by owning lands that they live upon. If in Jones County, Texas, a young family can be "loaned" a piece of land, and ere long the price of that land is repaid by the frugality and labors of that family. Who is hurt by that deal? It is not a dole, it is good common sense to invest idle money that way. Already no telling how many thousands of dollars have been "squandered" in Jones county by handing out government money as "relief." That does not make good sense. $8,000 loaned by the government to a good young farmer is nothing more than telling him, "Here's some money that's idle, take it and get busy, make all you can, be at home and feel secure, pay it back out of your earnings, and give your children a chance in life."

At the meeting it was revealed that two more Tenant Purchase Loans had been made.

About Soldiers--Sailors

C. J. Adkins, who has been in Brownwood for some time, reported to Dallas Tuesday for assignment to active duty as an aviation cadet.

Mrs. K. Garrett has received an airmail letter from her son, R. C. Garrett, Seaman 1-C, who indicates that he is working in the Navy Hospital Ward C, in Coco Solo, Canal Zone. So again, you see these old Hamlin kids are still "discovering" the world, and what a world!

One thing, even the carpenters who have been not much farther than the edges of Texas are learning that the peoples of other sections of this United States are not like the folks in Hamlin, good old Hamlin, clean and angelic, compared with how the people live in some places.

You know Navy men turn to poetry. Garrett sent a typical Navy piece, titled "Life In The Tropics". The Herald does not encourage poems but to give you the trend of "Life In The Tropics," we'll give you the last verse:

"By sending this little warning,
I hope I have done well,
When I die I'm going to heaven,
'Cause I've done my hitch in hell."

The commanding officer of the Lubbock Air Field reports the promotion of Clee Barnett from Pfc. to Corporal—just one more step of responsibility. Clee is a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Barnett, a Fisher county cowboy, you remember.

A letter this week from Coy Fielder at Tahoka, says his brother, Capt. Leo. Fielder, Aviation Pilot, has gone from England to the North Africa area. Capt. Fielder says they are having a nice little war all their own going on over there. All this will lend still more interest and anxiety as the struggle goes on there.

Down on the other side of the world, is another Hamlin-Wise Chapel boy, Flight Officer W. B. Teague, who has written his mother that he is fine and dandy. Not long ago he was just leaving for "somewhere" and so now he is in the game against the Japs. He started his letter on January 19, and it arrived in fine time.

FLASH! Early Thursday morning, Mrs. W. B. Teague, wife of Flight Officer Lt. W. B. Teague, phoned the Herald that she had received a message on Wednesday from her husband's commander, that W. B. seriously ill in a hospital in the Southwest Pacific. That was on January 30th. No further particulars were given. The young wife asked that we transmit the news to Mother Teague near Wise Chapel. Young Mrs. Teague was in Rantoul, Ill.

The sailors were in the majority on Hamlin's streets the past week end, and one of them was Leonard Sowell, who came up from Hollywood, Florida, last Friday night, to see if his little daughter would recognize him. The trick was the other way. Sowell did not know his own daughter. Sailors don't change much and young baby girls do, you see. Leonard is rated as Aviation Ordnance Seaman 3-C. He will start back Sunday.

Seaman 2-C, Harold Newberry Jr. writes from his Navy station near Memphis, Tenn., that is in training to be an Aviation Machinist Mate. He studies machine guns, bombs, smoke screen and many other things that a plane is equipped with. Harold has been in the hospital slightly sick a few weeks but will soon be out and maybe get to come home for a spell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson received word last week that their son, Jack E., had been promoted from Captain to Major on January 20. Major Jack E. Hudson has been an instructor at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, for the WAAC's since last September.

Pvt. P. R. Allen came in Wednesday from Camp Hill, Texas, where he is in training in the Coast Artillery. His mother, Mrs. Dick Allen, is very ill.

Last Monday the Sophomore home room class under Mrs. Toler bought $31.00 worth of Defense Stamps in thirty-five minutes. That is one dollar a minute.

This is the first time that this has been done but the class plans to buy stamps every week.

Margaret Sellers gave the "Federation Quizz" whose questions were answered by the club members.

At the conclusion of the meeting, delicious refreshments were enjoyed by everyone.

A Call To Young People

During the last few years, a lot of us have neglected a very important item in building up our community. Whether this neglect has been an oversight only we ourselves know, but don't you think it is time that we woke up to the fact that we are hurting our community as well as ourselves? Everywhere one goes these days he hears the cries of patriotism. Everyone is willing to do his part—his duty—to help win the war, to help build up our nation; but how many of us are willing to do our duty to the church? We say we haven't time, but the only person we are fooling is ourselves.

God knows how much time we have and how we waste minutes and hours that could be devoted to useful, helpful work. We just haven't time because we devote all our time to furthering our political, vocational, and social interests.

Some of the young people of the Methodist Church are doubling their efforts to build up the Young Peoples' Department. But a few young people can not possibly build up a permanent, growing life in this department without help—your help and my help. This is an appeal to all you other young people to do your part—to do your duty—in helping with this worthwhile work. This is an appeal to all you parents, who are seeking to teach your children to appreciate the finer things in life, to encourage them to come to League, and to discharge that responsibility in a manner that will prove worthy.

These young people who have worked so faithfully and attended so regularly have presented many fine programs that you and I know nothing about—because we were not there. These young people are still presenting good, wholesome, interesting programs for our benefit. They are searching for programs that we like, that we want. Yet how can they know what we like and want unless we let them know what interests us? And how can we let them know what interests us unless we attend the meetings? This next Sunday evening, let's show these young people that we appreciate their efforts by being "the little man who is there," rather than "the little man who wasn't there." Shall we?

The program for the coming Sunday evening is one well worth your while. The highlights of the program will be presented by Mr.

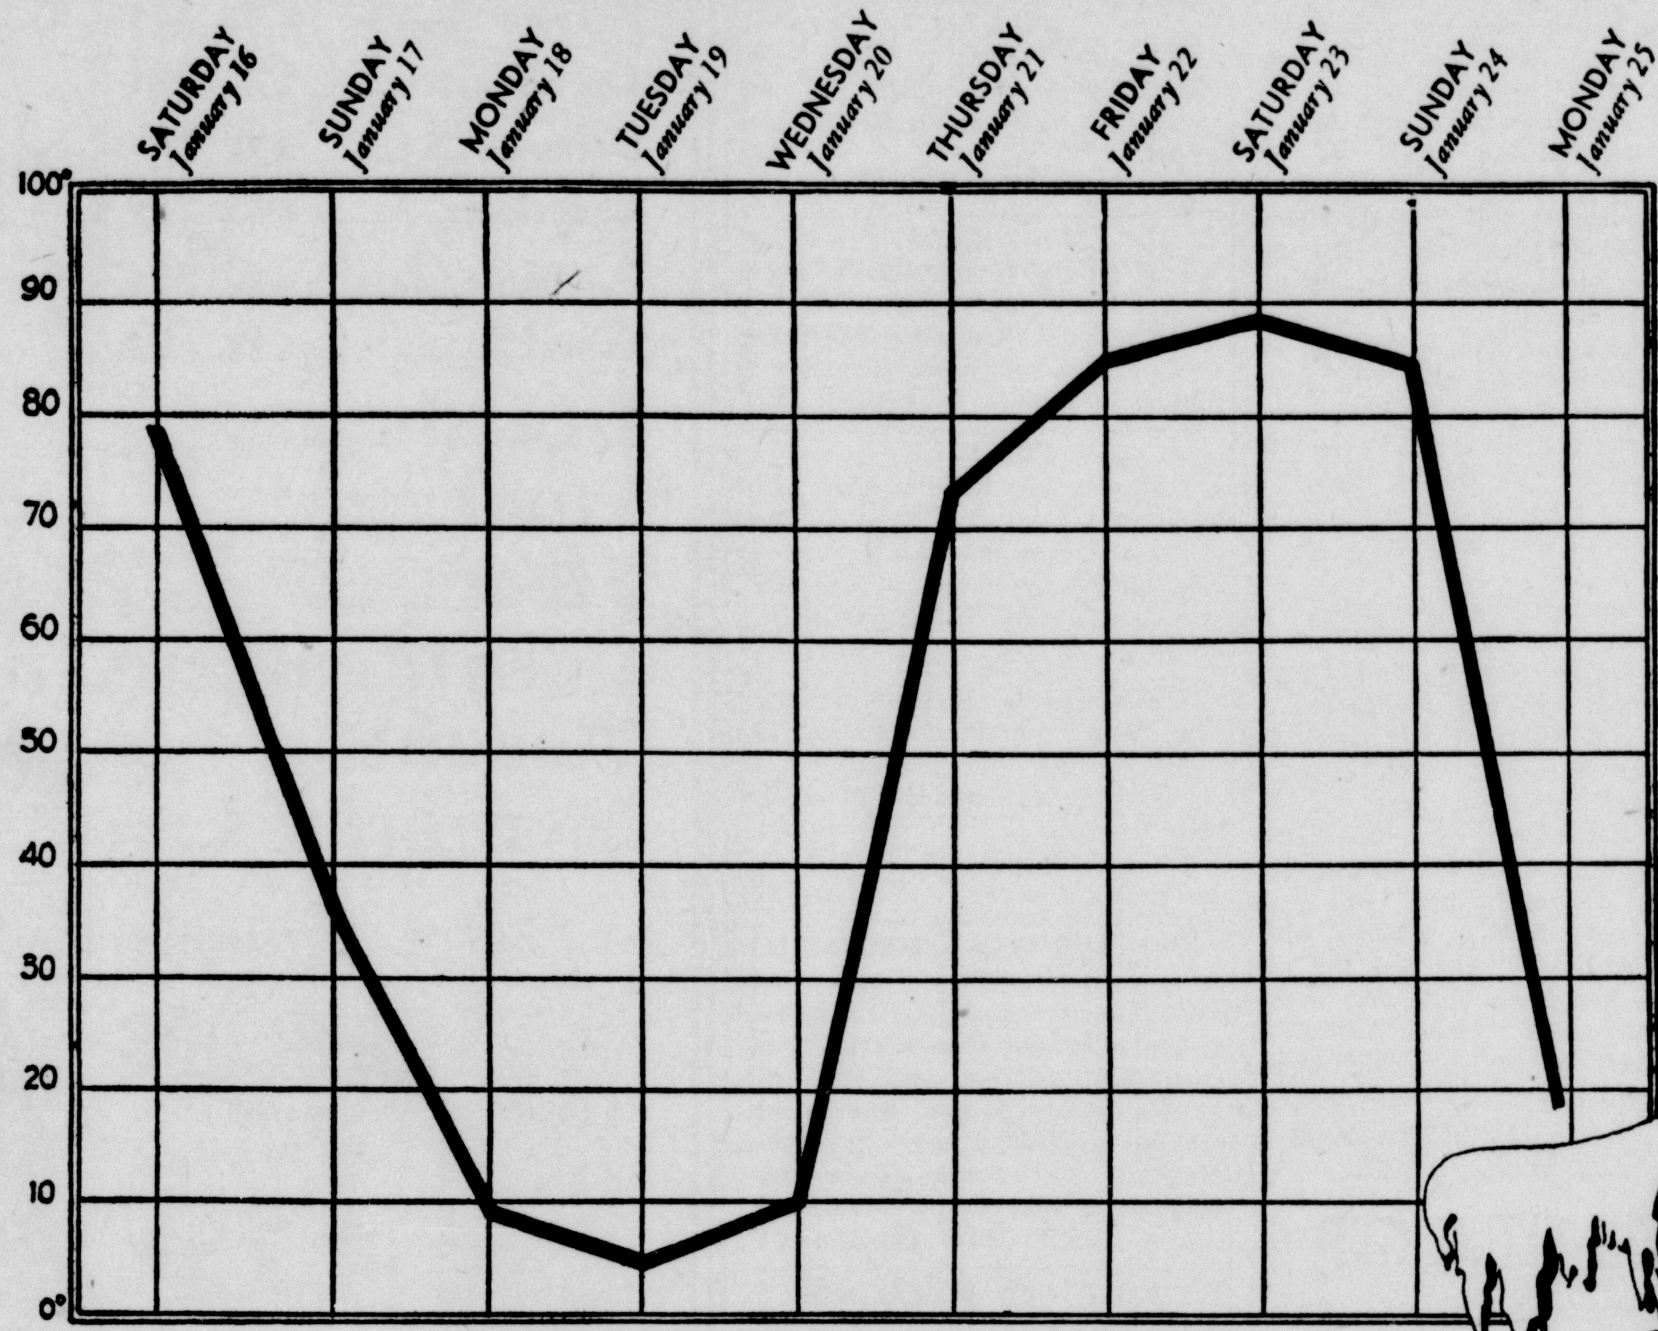

G. R. Bennett.

A true American is one who faithfully discharges all duties—spiritually, morally, and socially.

Are YOU a true American? Then we will be expecting to see you at The Young People League. A Representative of

QUICK WEATHER CHANGES

Must be met when they occur with the teamwork of an organization like Lone Star's 4,500 Employees

Above chart shows the abrupt temperature changes during the period between Saturday, January 16, and Monday, January 25, inclusive. Period contains a record January day for HEAT and a near record day for COLD—88 degrees and 5 degrees. Dallas Weather Bureau Temperatures.

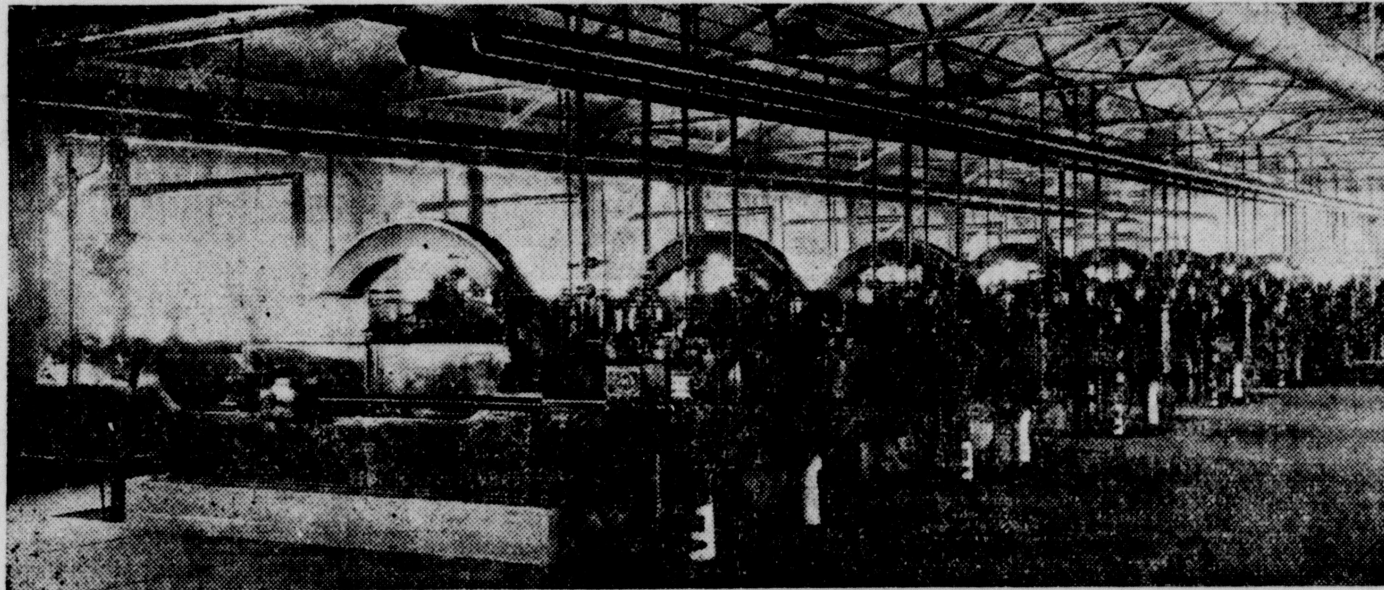

Recent reorganization of Lone Star transportation and distribution properties into one company makes for additional coordination of effort in meeting peak demands!

A drop of 74° almost overnight!—where else but in the Southwest could that happen? As the temperature drops, the need for gas service mounts until, for example, on Tuesday, January 19, the demand was over 100% greater than it was on Saturday, January 16.

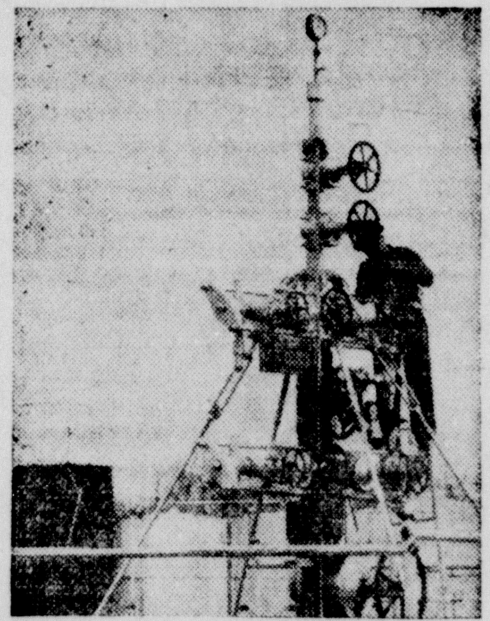

Such sudden and peak demands must be met when they occur. They cannot be prorated over the next few days or weeks. Few industries face the same situation Natural Gas does when a blue Norther suddenly strikes the Southwest with all its wintry fury.

Keeping Natural Gas flowing from 75 different fields through a pipeline network of 4,800 miles in step with such abrupt temperature changes to supply the wartime fuel needs of the Southwest is a task that requires the special skill and experience of 4,500 men and women working together as a team. The work of each is important in maintaining the dependable, high-quality, low-cost gas service you know as Lone Star.

PART OF COMPRESSOR STATION which keeps gas moving at high pressure through transportation lines. There are eighteen of these stations with 136 engines developing a total horsepower of over 30,000, located at strategic points over the interconnected system. During summer months most of these engines are idle. But they must be maintained to meet the peak day.

"CHRISTMAS TREE" VALVE which regulates flow of gas from well. Wells are opened into pipeline as dispatcher directs, according to the expected temperatures and demands. Each of over 1,000 wells is carefully maintained for maximum life.

Another cold wave hit McCauley Sunday afternoon and a drizzling rain Monday. The weather report for the benefit of the home town soldier boys who get the Herald.

Those who send us news by mail, please get it to us on Monday as we mail this column on the Tuesday morning train.

Live at home seems to be the main subject in this vicinity and folks who have in the past failed to plant gardens are getting ready to raise a home garden. You can never tell, we may be unable to buy many vegetables this year and the fellow that has a cellar full of home grown fruits and other eats is lucky.

We read in the press about meat markets in the north and east selling horse meat. Well it may happen in Texas but Texas folks are going to be mighty hungry before they eat our good friend the horse. In fact, Texans have always been horse lovers and let's remain that way.

Beyond a doubt, the U. S. A. is going to have to feed starving Europe but wouldn't it be rather silly to ship food across the sea as long as there remains a hungry citizen in our own country? To prove our point we quote the Good Book: "He that provideth not for his family and especially for those of his own household has denied the faith and is worse than an infidel."

O-O-O

The meeting of the President and Mr. Churchill along with their military staffs at Casablanca in North Africa was in reality one of the great events of this war which will go down in history as the turning point of World War No. 2.

We shall expect, and we shall see mighty things come to pass from this get together of the two most brilliant leaders the world has ever known.

We can also expect jealous criticism from some who have in the past criticized this administration, but as far as the majority of the American people is concerned F. D. R. and Winnie have the right-of-way until victory has come to the peace loving people everywhere.

The President has shown to the world the fighting spirit of the American people, and he has proved that he not only expects victory the hard way, but victory the only way—by blood, sweat and tears and disappointments.

The risk and danger of this historic five thousand mile trip across the Atlantic by the President has proved to the world that even the President of the United States is willing to risk his own neck in order that all men may some day be free.

The unconditional surrender of the Axis powers is what the people of the United Nations want. There is no other safe way for people to be free. When Germany, Japan and Italy are brought to their knees by the sheer might and force of the United Nations and when those dictatorial powers are disarmed and made to stay disarmed, then can the world settle down in a world which calls for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Hats off, to our President and Winston Churchill who made possible a better understanding between all United Nations.
